

Dear FCC:

In regard to RM-10787, I believe that Morse Code testing should be continued for the licensing of the high-frequency (HF) amateur radio bands. The current five-words-per-minute (5 WPM) requirement is not difficult to attain, and it requires that a person have a real commitment to the standards that amateur radio represents.

Sincerely yours,

David S. Forsman, WA7JHZ
3115 Seventh Street
Lewiston, Idaho 83501-4607
(209) 746-2256
shampoo@syringa.net